• About every 30 seconds a child dies of malaria, a preventable and treatable disease.

• An estimated 101 million primary-school-age children worldwide don’t attend school.

• About 2.5 billion people live on less than $2 per day, making them extremely vulnerable to natural disasters, illness, food shortages or instability of any kind.

• 22,000 children die each day due to conditions of poverty.

• 1 billion children (nearly half of all the world’s children) live in poverty. Hundreds of millions live in extreme poverty.

• Each day, 10,000 newborns in developing countries die within a month of birth.

• 640 million children live without adequate shelter.

• There are 1.1 billion people in developing countries without access to clean water.

Sources include UNICEF and The World Bank.