

HR Talent Acquisition

Why Join Us?

Directly support the Human Resources Recruiting team through a variety of projects including event planning, marketing, organization, and communications development. Your main focus will be to take an innovative approach to the current internship recruiting process to draw talented students.

You will:

- Research and evaluate current Internship program recruitment and identify areas of growth
- Develop marketing, branding, and communication for Compassion's 2017 Internships
- Create and update communication for the intern web pages and social media platforms
- Plan and coordinate intern events, including the Intern Showcase event for spring 2016

You have:

- Great project management skills and love to balance multiple projects at one time
- The ability to keep a secret. You must be able to understand and handle sensitive and confidential information.
- Experience and technical skills in MS Office products and social media platforms

You study:

- Business, Marketing, Project Management, Human Resources, Psychology, etc