

Market Research Intern

Why Join Us?

Collaborate with the Stewardship Communications department to provide world-class collateral for Compassion's donor base. Lead in projects including evaluation of best-in-class service for donors and creation of web reporting to find innovative ways to connect with donors.

You will:

- Collect and analyze quantitative and qualitative data from like-organizations
- Support the team with administrative tasks
- Edit and proof marketing pieces before they are sent to print
- Present new and innovative ways to assist in team processes

You have:

- Passion for market research and providing data in a creative way
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills
- Experience with Microsoft Office
- Baseline knowledge of InDesign, Photoshop and/or Wordpress is a plus
- Video-editing experience is a plus
- Good judgment and discretion, time management skills, and organizational skills

You study:

- Marketing, Research, Communications, or other related fields of study