Physician to review and complete the following: Compassion International is a nonprofit organization committed to Christian holistic development of children in poverty through sponsorship. Compassion offers group trips for sponsors and other partners to meet the sponsored children and learn about the programs they support. Compassion trips typically include travel into the poorest areas of developing countries. Conditions are frequently uncomfortable and physically and emotionally challenging, including extended periods of walking on rough/unpaved paths, demanding climbs often at high elevation, and long travel times requiring use of modern and primitive, private and public transportation services which may lack accommodations for people with physical disabilities. Dietary and climate changes also add to the physical and emotional intensity of our trips, and due to the nature of long periods of travel, experiencing lack of sleep is customary. Some areas may be remote and medical, including psychological care may not be immediately available in the particular area visited. Please be considerate of these factors as you evaluate the participant's readiness for such conditions. Compassion International may require an accompanying traveler at the expense of the participant to monitor and assist with specific physical or medical needs. The right is reserved to decline participation for any person as a trip member for any reason which affects the operation of the trip or the rights and enjoyment of the other trip members.
