

COMPASSION sunday®

Right now, up to 783 million people in the world are facing hunger Children are suffering. In the face of such injustice, I know you want to do something.

But maybe you're wondering how you can make a difference. Maybe you're asking ... what's the best way to tackle something as vast as hunger and global poverty? And what can I really do about it?

Today is Compassion Sunday — a day set apart to respond to the needs of children living in poverty around the world. At the sponsorship table, you'll find photos of boys and girls who would love to have someone like you to serve, honor and protect them.

When you sponsor a child, you'll help them see themselves as precious and valuable in the eyes of God — which is one of the most potent weapons against poverty. And when it's paired with nutritious food to combat hunger, tutoring, regular medical checkups and vocational training ... the result is a tangible and sustainable impact.

That's why children in Compassion's program are more likely to stay in school, break the cycle of poverty in their families, become leaders in their communities and build tomorrow's Church.

You can fight injustice by releasing a child from poverty in Jesus' name through sponsorship. Will you?
